"OLD KAINUTSKY."

The poet of the following lines, Thomas H. Arnold, of Chicago, is evidently a "Kainutskan," and much in love with his native state.

You're from old Kentucky,
Well, I'll be glad to say
I'd rather live in that old State
Than be the czar of Russia.
With his riches and his truck—
Say, I wouldn't take his kingdom
For one corner of old "Kainutsky."
I'd rather be a hopper
Jes' laz' in the corn
On an old Kainutsky hillside
Than any King that's born.
I'd rather watch the bluegrass
Nod its dainty head, and bow
Than see the slickest picture
In old Italy, I swear.
It seems to me old nature
When she cut Kainutsky out
Came pretty near a-knowin'
The thing she was about—
And so she made another Eden
With the sweetest flowers that grew
And christened in Kainutsky
With a jug of "mountain dew."
There ain't no other corner
Of this hemisphere of ours
Whar old Mother Earth is kivered
With such dainty perfumed flowers,
Whar old Kainutsky and his thrushes
Can ejaculate such notes.
As they can in old Kainutsky
From their little feathered throats.
An' the wimen, jumpin' jay-birds in the good old bluegrass State,
The Lord has made 'em perfect, and lost the fashion plate.
I wouldn't be without them—I'll state here, by and by,
You can plant me in Kainutsky when it comes my time to die.

COMMUNICATIONS.

It is our earnest desire to accommodate every one who sends in communications by giving the same space in our paper. We have done so on every occasion that we could. For the last few months we have been crowded with work, which we cannot refuse under the law. One of the postal rules and regulations is that a publication must take all advertisements offered it at the same rate for the same class. While no one has forced any "ads" on us, still we have been crowded. For this we are thankful. Our payroll is very heavy and must be met and we must make our paper profitable. We can not crowd out paying business for communications which are on general subjects and in which the public has no direct interest and which can be printed at any time when we are not rushed with work. With this explanation, we hope that no one will think that we are indifferent to their writings or that we do not appreciate them.

OUR BEER HOUSE.

The Richmond Climax-Madisonian says, "That the beer house in that city suffered a partial loss by fire. But the question that arises in our minds is, what is Richmond, a prohibition town, doing with a beer house?"—Stanford Interior Journal.

The answer is: The same that Mrs. Beauchamp said they were doing in your county of Lincoln—Shelbyville Record.
And here you are.—Anderson News.
And here you are. This house was a relic of the old barroom days.

BE VIGILANT.

The Clark County Vigilance Committee, which was organized for the purpose of assisting in the eradication of the foot and mouth disease, have called on all the people to co-operate with them in their efforts, and especially ask the Press for its assistance. This is a matter that addresses itself to the sound judgment of the farmers, and we have no doubt that the farmers of this county will heartily co-operate in everything necessary to secure the suppression of this trouble. Otherwise, they would be standing in their own light.

SIX FOR A NICKEL.

If candidates for Governor keep on coming out, they'll get so common somebody will tie them in bunches and sell them six for a nickel. If there is any white male citizen of Kentucky who thinks he is NOT suitable for gubernatorial timber will he please rise, hold up his right hand, and wink his left eye. Remain standing, please, while the band plays, "I'm Afraid to Go Home in the Dark."—Woodford Sun.

ANNOUNCEMENT.

Beginning in April, all the good features of general literature, sermons, temperance, domestic science, woman's page, children's page, etc., which, for the time being, we have been compelled to abandon, will be restored. Our paper must be strictly a family paper. It's the only kind that we want to run.

S S S S S.

It takes $888 and $888 and $888 to run this paper. Are you helping us? The $888 you owe us, if handed to us will enable us to hand $888 to the other fellow. $888 talk. Please talk $888 with us.

Unusual Distinction.

Mr. and Mrs. William Day, of Point Lick, have a great-grandson in the infant of Mr. and Mrs. Ward, of Garrard county. This little fellow has been named Robert Fulton, for his father, and has the honor of having ten living grand-children, all living near Point Lick in the counties of Madison and Garrard.

Why So Many Feel Tired.

"Spring fever" usually is the result of sluggish bowels and torpid liver. After months indoors, you are not likely to feel vigorous and sprightly. Foley's Cathartic Tablets are "worth their weight in gold" for that over-full feeling, biliousness, gas on the stomach, bad breath, indigestion or constipation. Their action is quick, comfortable and complete without nausea or griping. Scout people say they are a blessing. Sold every where.

Making Good.

Mr. Woodson S. Baldwin, of this county, who is attending school at Knoxville, has been declared eligible to the election as an officer of the Phi Kappa Phi literary society of his school for having attained an average of more than 90 per cent. The people of Madison county are always gratified to hear that its students are making good in the different colleges, and we congratulate most heartily Mr. Baldwin on his splendid showing.

New Telephone Line.

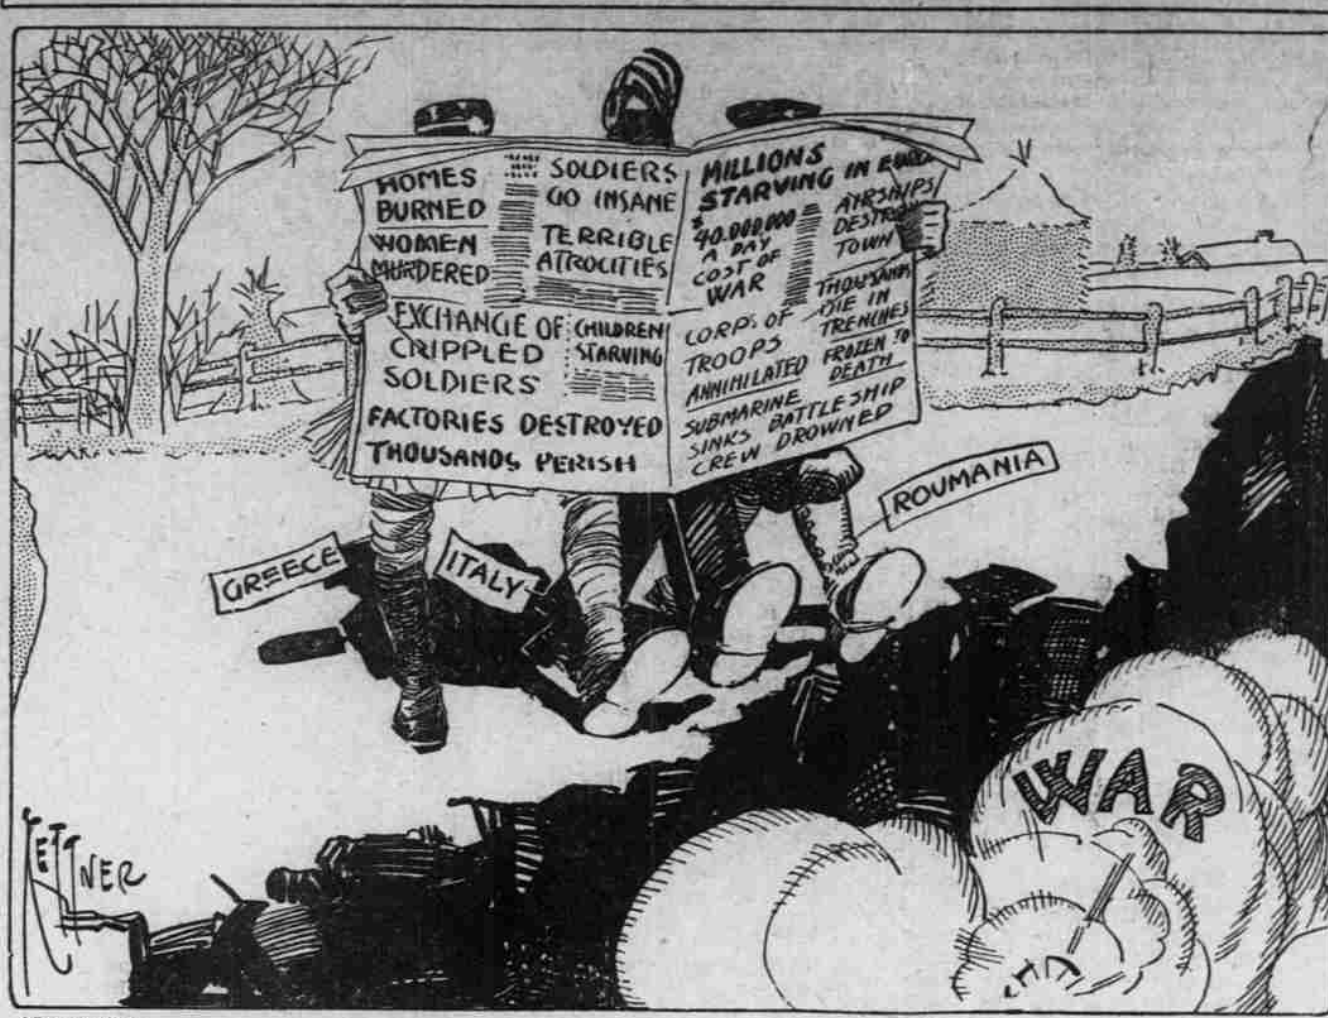

A new farmers line has been connected to the Waco (Ky.) Exchange, which will serve the following well known families: W. C. Brandenburg, Melvin Brandenburg, Chester Brandenburg, Alfred Cruse, Miss Jennie Minter and Mrs. Annie Braddish. The construction of this line by the residents is another step in making the farm more attractive to our young folks. If interested, call the manager of The Cumberland Telephone & Telegraph Company at Richmond, Ky., and he will explain the proposition to you fully and lend the help necessary to establish your line.

DEPUTY SHERIFF GIVES TESTIMONY.

Pat Donahue Praises Remarkable Work of Medicine, Tanlac.

Louisville, Ky., March 30.—Pat Donahue, chief deputy jailer of this, Jefferson county, a man of unquestioned honesty and integrity, is among well known people who endorsed Tanlac, the new medicine that is accomplishing such remarkable results in this city. Mr. Donahue's statement is as follows:

"It gives me great pleasure to recommend Tanlac, as I have found it quite beneficial in my case. I have used the medicine for a general rundown condition of the system."

The demand for Tanlac, the preparation referred to by Mr. Donahue, is now very great in Kentucky and is steadily increasing. In this connection, L. T. Cooper, who is personally directing the sale of the famous medicine, said:

"I am, indeed, gratified to see such marked enthusiasm, as I now feel justified that my prediction that Tanlac would prove to be as successful in Louisville as it has in the larger cities. The system, besides being purified by Tanlac, is toned up and invigorated, as the preparation, aside from assisting the blood, reinvigorates the constitution, overcoming, as it seems quickly to do, nervousness, indigestion, nonassimilation of food, headaches, backache, dizziness, kidney complaints, general rundown condition of the system, and many other complaints that are so common to thousands in this section."

"Tanolac is especially valuable in catarrhal affections of the mucous membranes, which I consider the foundation of most ailments and diseases. People who are affected with catarrh of the head, throat and stomach are generally moody and depressed, with an occasional dull headache, accumulations in the nose and throat, affected memory and a depreciated sense of smell and taste, which finally results in an affected hearing."

Tanolac can now be bought in Richmond at H. L. Perry's, adv

A WONDERFUL HEALING INFLUENCE IN KIDNEY TROUBLES

A year and a half ago I was taken with a severe attack of kidney trouble that pained me to such an extent that morphine had to be given me. Was attended by a doctor who pronounced it as Stone in the bladder and prescribed Lithia Water. I took Lithia Water and Tablets for some time and received no relief from them. I stopped taking medicines for some time, later having some Swamp-Root in the house I decided to try it, and felt much relieved. While taking the second bottle commenced to pass Gravel in urine until I had passed in all at least a half dozen or more and have not suffered the slightest since—and in all have taken one bottle and half and feel very grateful to Swamp-Root.

Yours very truly,
H. W. SPINKS,
Camp Hill, Ala.

Personally appeared before me this 16th day of August, 1909, H. W. Spinks, who subscribed the above statement and made oath that the same is true in substance and in fact.

Wise Old Matthew.
Dear Luke—Matthew Prior was the Luke McClure of his period. I culled the following from a book written by Matthew in 1698:—"Bugs!"

When Biba thought fit from the world to retreat,
As full of champagne as an egg's full of meat,
He woke in the boat and to Charon he said,
He would be rowed back, for he was not yet dead.

"Trim the boat and sit quiet," stern Charon replied,
"You may have forgot—you were drunk when you died."

Col. John Cunningham.

Col. John Cunningham, a prominent and popular farmer of Rowland, Bourbon county, Kentucky, has lived to see the dream of his life fulfilled—the broad L. & N. double track railroad going from Cincinnati south. There are seventeen tracks laid out to the machine shops three miles this side of Paris. He was one of the first L. & N. Commissioners and first suggested to the officials of the road the necessity of a double track. Col. Cunningham, noted as a prominent breeder of premium Short-horn cattle, was one of the magistrates and supervisors of the building of one of the Bourbon county court houses. He was selected chairman of the three million dollar Railroad Convention at Cincinnati, Ohio, and received many compliments for distinguished services. He is the son of Senator John Cunningham, deceased.
